Name of the Programme	Role Play Activity
Day and Date	8 th April 2022
Venue	B.Ed College Campus
Name of Cell/Committee	Social Responsibility Cell
Name of Event Coordinator	Prof. Nidhi Medhekar

Objective of Programme:

1. To simulate managerial situations to enhance students' problem-solving abilities.
2. To cultivate teamwork and collaboration among participants.
3. To provide a platform for students to apply theoretical knowledge in practical settings.

Description of Programme:

The existence of human life on the earth is impossible without the equal participation of both women and men. They are equally responsible for the survival of the human race on the earth. They are also liable for the development and growth of a nation. However, the existence of the woman is for more important than men. Because without her we cannot think about our existence. So, to save humans from extinction we have to take measures to save girl child.

Inline with above theme, the institute celebrated Role Play activity in collaboration with Adhyapak Mahavidyalay on 8th April 2022. The theme of the Role Play was Save Girl Child. The activity involved dividing participants into groups and assigning them diverse husband, wife, brother, in laws and society representatives, etc.. Each group was presented with a case study reflective of real-world organizational challenges that women face while delivering birth to girl child. The role-play sessions were conducted in a controlled environment, moderated by faculty members who provided guidance and feedback throughout the process. Participants were encouraged to immerse themselves fully in their assigned roles, considering various perspectives and constraints.
