1. Makar Sankranti Celebration (15th January 2018)

Makar Sankranti is traditional festival mainly celebrated by Women by offering different gifts to each other. Makar Sankranti was celebrated on 14th January at IMR Campus. This festival is a traditional and oldest event that happens on an equinox that is the length of day and night remains equally long. After Makar Sankranti, the days grow longer and the nights shorter till the next equinox. It is said that on the day of Makar Sankranti, the Sun enters the sphere of Capricorn zodiac known as Makar.

2. Sports Activities (24th February 2018)

IMR motivates girl students to participate in sports activities. In recent years, there has been a significant shift from advocating for 'gender equity in sport' towards using 'sport for gender equity and personal development'. The participation of women and girls in sport remains largely imbalanced when compared to participation among men and boys. Most researchers are in agreement that the consistent and continued participation of women and girls in sport has had a major impact on achieving gender equality in certain contexts.

3. International Women's Day (IWD) (8th March 2017)

8th March, is considered as International Women's Day. This day brings many things for women – a cause for celebration, a reason to pause and re-evaluate a remembrance, an inspiration and a time to honor, loved and admired. To honor womanhood, IMR College has celebrated the International Women's Day on 8th March, 2017 at college campus.

1. Makar Sankranti Celebration (15th January 2018)

Makar Sankranti is traditional festival mainly celebrated by Women by offering different gifts to each other. Makar Sankranti was celebrated on 14th January at IMR Campus. This festival is a traditional and oldest event that happens on an equinox that is the length of day and night remains equally long. After Makar Sankranti, the days grow longer and the nights shorter till the next equinox. It is said that on the day of Makar Sankranti, the Sun enters the sphere of Capricorn zodiac known as Makar.

2. Sports Activities (24th February 2018)

IMR motivates girl students to participate in sports activities. In recent years, there has been a significant shift from advocating for 'gender equity in sport' towards using 'sport for gender equity and personal development'. The participation of women and girls in sport remains largely imbalanced when compared to participation among men and boys, most researchers are in agreement that the consistent and continued participation of women and girls in sport has had a major impact on achieving gender equality in certain contexts.

3. International Women's Day (IWD) (8th March 2017)

8th March, is considered as International Women's Day. This day brings many things for women – a cause for celebration, a reason to pause and re-evaluate a remembrance, an inspiration and a time to honor, loved and admired. To honor womanhood, IMR College has celebrated the International Women's Day on 8th March, 2017 at college campus.
