THE IMR PHILOSOPHY

Imr Is Committed To Innovation And Personal Attention In Its Teaching Methods. Today Students Are More Adaptable And Open To Experimental Learning Than Traditional / Theoretical Learning. We Offer Our Students A Healthy Balance Of Both. We Offer Flexible Teaching With Personalized Coaching In Small Groups. We Also Impart Project-Oriented Learning In Which Students Work On A Live Project Offered By Various Companies (Summer & Winter Training). In This Way, Theory Is Incorporated With Task-Oriented Learning And Students See The Immediate Practicality Of New Ideas In An Experimental Context Thus Improving Retention Of Candidates In The Companies. With Our Personalized Coaching And Career Counseling, We Attend To Our Students' Particular Needs And Concerns. We Have Seen Through Practical Experience That With A Little Bit Of Personal Attention And A Push, These Students Can Attain Great Success.
