Core Values of Institute

Shree Shivaji Maratha Society's Institute of Management and Research promotes Human Dignity and honesty as core values. We have a legacy of 100 years old trust with us so believe in trust and respect towards our nature as well as culture.

1. Cultural Legacy

Being 100 years old organization we have great legacy of Maharashtra's Culture. Our founder is a great king Shrimant Chattrapati Shahu Maharaj of Kolhapur. We take continues efforts to imbibe the Indian culture into our new generations.

2. Human Dignity and Respect

We promote a more abiding commitment to freedom, a more constant pursuit of justice and a deeper respect for human dignity. We will stand for the idea that every person is of equal dignity and has an equal right to express own opinions.

3. Committed to Social Responsibility

We are committed to social responsibilities. We are proving value based education from last 100 years in the most affordable fees. Each year we have students who belong to different cast categories and economically backward classes. We promote the importance of education in rural area.

4. Excellence

We seek and make efforts for greater excellence in professional education through well qualified staff, best infrastructure. We promote continuous improvement, encouragement, innovation and research in education system.
